Significant and unusual exclusions

Whilst we try to offer the broadest cover possible, we do not provide cover for certain situations. A summary of the significant and unusual exclusions that appear in the Policy are listed below.

However, it is important to read the policy to see the full list of exclusions:

- Any matter known by you which you don't tell us about before we agree to cover you
- Any bodily injury. This does not apply to claims for mental injury or emotional distress in some circumstances
- You collecting private data without consent
- Any breach of contract guarantee or warrantee. This only applies to the professional indemnity cover
- Any consequential loss. This only applies to the crime cover
- Senior executive officers stealing from the company. This only applies to the crime cover
- You being in a better financial position or benefitting from better computer systems as a direct result of a cyber event. This only applies to the cyber cover
- Any employment practices liability claims against you.

Limits of liability and deductibles

The limits of liability and deductibles are as specified in the Schedule.

Conditions

What we believe to be the most significant condition is listed below; however, all conditions in the policy are significant. It is important to read the policy and see the full list of conditions.

- We will cover any entity you acquire on a permanent or temporary basis depending on the asset value of the acquired entity
- We will not automatically cover any entity you acquire:
 - Whose business activities are materially different from your business activities
 - That has been the subject of any lawsuit, disciplinary action or regulatory investigation in the 3 years immediately prior to the acquisition
 - That has experienced a cyber event in the 3 years immediately prior to the acquisition.

Right of cancellation

There is no cooling off period under this Policy but it may be cancelled with 30 days written notice by you.

Duration of the policy

Insurance policies normally run for a period of 12 months. We strongly urge you to review your Policy each year to ensure you have adequate cover in place.

Claims notification

Should you wish to notify a claim under this Policy, please contact the Claims Managers shown on your Policy Schedule. You must do this as soon as is reasonably practicable and no later than the end of any applicable extended reporting period.

Our regulatory status

CFC Underwriting Limited is authorised and regulated by the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). CFC Underwriting Limited's Firm Reference Number at the FCA is 312848. These details may be checked by visiting the FCA website at www.fca.org.uk/register. Alternatively the FCA may be contacted on 0800 111 6768.

We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if we cannot meet our obligations to you in respect of insurance policies that we have underwritten on behalf of insurers.

This depends on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim. In respect of general insurance business the FSCS will cover 90% of the claim, without any upper limit and for compulsory classes of insurance, the FSCS will cover 100% of the claim, without any upper limit. Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS.
